

ArbiterSports

Online Resources - Where to Look

Wednesday, January 31, 2018

MLOA general website

- accessible by anybody
- contains general information about MLOA
- contains links into registration (Arbiter)
- predates use of Arbiter for training (still some good content)

US Lacrosse general website

- accessible by anybody
- used for general information about lacrosse, registration for convention, publicity, etc.
- used to Join USL or renew USL membership
- once a member, there is a Member Access portal, which is used to:
  - update USL contact information
  - order USL merchandise
  - take USL online courses (intro to rules, trainer webinars, observer webinars, etc.)

Arbiter

where officiating work gets done

Registration

- anybody can start the registration process (Youth or Adult)
- anybody who completes registration shows up as an official in the MLOA group
- Assignor must change status to Active

USL Central Hub

- only accessible to current USL members
- where USL puts training materials for boys' and girls' games
- where USL members go to take tests (NFHS, Youth and NCAA)
- NOT the NILOA test

MLOA

- accessible to MLOA members, both active and in training
- Officials maintain contact info & availability, accept / decline assignments, etc.
- Assignors list games, make assignments, etc.
- Trainers create Events, issue invitations, optionally track attendance
- Trainers track scoring on tests taken on USL Central Hub

MLOA Central Hub

only accessible to members of MLOA contains Newsletters from Trainer, Youth Coordinator and Chief Referee allows storage of MLOA documents
If you have questions, please contact Jeff Howes.

Printed from ArbiterSports.com